

The 10 Mitzvot

We praise you, Eternal God, Sovereign of the universe
You hallow us with the gift of Torah and command us to immerse ourselves in its words

These are duties whose worth cannot be measured

Honoring one's father and mother

Acts of love and kindness

Diligent pursuit of knowledge & wisdom

Hospitality to strangers

Visiting the sick

Celebrating with bride and groom

Consoling the bereaved

Praying with sincerity

Making peace where there is strife

And the study of Torah leads to them all

Students:

Write one paragraph each about each commandment. Discuss the following:

Why is it a mitzvah?

Why does G-d want us to do it?

What have you done/do you do?

What can you do better/more of?

How does it make you feel when you do it?

How does it make the other person feel?

What is the result in the world of people doing this?
